Montevideo – Rodó Park Market

Breakfast at the Hotel. By the morning we will make a stroll setting off from the hotel toward the Park Rodó Market. This market is typical at Montevideo every Sundays. At Park Rodó Market you'll be able to find anything, from old books and magazines to old toys and a great variety of antiques. When we finish walk, we'll go straight to have lunch at Port's Market. Return to the hotel.

Note: This outing is likely to be one on Sundays rather than other days. Otherwise you should ask to switch with other excursion, pick another activity or leave the day off. Travel Agent's advice is to visit Piriápolis during the day.

Montevideo – Colonia del Sacramento

Breakfast at the Hotel. We'll go the Montevideo's bus station. We'll go to Colonia del Sacramento, two hours away. At once, we'll make a tour around the place. Beginning by the river side boulevard from where you could appreciate the bay and the islands close to the shore. Below we'll go to Real de San Carlos, the old bullring, the Casino and the Ball Court. Immediately we'll go to the Port and the Centertown.

We'll visit the old city, Human Heritage. Vice-King's House, Tile's Museum, Spanish Museum, Novel Church, Regional File, Sigh St., Main Square and Eva Peron's House are the musts of the walk. In the evening we'll go back to Buenos Aires by fast ferry, one hour away. Reception in the port and transfer to the Hotel.
